To Whom It May Concern:

We employed the services of Anne and Sarah Harrington to sell our house in Vienna, VA. In short, we highly recommend them.

We needed to sell our home as the result of a corporate relocation. We interviewed one other Realtor who was an acquaintance, but ended up choosing Anne and Sarah to list our home because of their top-notch marketing plan and the very high level of professionalism they brought to the table. It was clear that Anne and Sarah had done their research and created an excellent marketing plan to sell our home, and we were very impressed by this.

Anne and Sarah were with us every step of the way as we went through the process of prepping and staging our home for sale. Their advice was invaluable as we moved toward getting our house ready to list. In the end, we sold our home in three days, largely because of Anne and Sarah's knowledge and expertise.

Again, we highly recommend Anne and Sarah and would employ their services again in a heartbeat if the opportunity ever arose.
